Nature of the event

The course will consist of a 5 to 8 mile lap of a flowing nature through forest trails and gravel tracks, run entirely on private land.

There will be alternative routes as an option for avoiding any technical areas.

The winner of each class will be the rider deemed to have completed the most laps of the course within the allotted race duration. This will be decided at the organisers' discretion and no correspondence or communication will be directly entered into. Though there will be results for this race, emphasis is of course on fun and experience for the next generation of enduro riders.

Race Start

The start on Saturday will be group starts by classes, with the Senior class leading the first wave starting at 10:00am. The remaining class will then follow after a minute.

Race duration

The race will finish when the chequered flag goes out for the lead rider in the senior class at the two-hour mark. Those still on the course will be deemed finishers at the completion of the lap they are on. Once the chequered flag goes up, no rider may start another lap. (the clerk of the course MAY, depending on the conditions on the day, alter the finish time.
